ARRIVAL
Your first contact person will be your buddy. This is a Stuttgart Media University student who will pick you up at the airport or the train station and takes you to your accommodation. They will answer your initial questions and help you to settle in. All international students will meet for the first time during the traditional welcome breakfast which launches the orientation weeks.

ORIENTATION WEEKS
Before the semester starts, we help you to organize your exchange semester. This includes: Registration with the local authorities, opening a bank account, getting your student ID, obtaining a ticket for public transport, internet access and many other things. Your intensive German language course will take place before the semester starts (winter semester only) and, of course, so will a lot of other activities, excursions and fun events.

WELCOME TO STUTTGART
When it comes to Stuttgart, names like Mercedes and Porsche come to most people’s minds. The federal state capital of Baden-Württemberg is famous for being the home of the world’s oldest car manufacturers. With companies like Bosch and Siemens, Stuttgart is in Europe’s leading high-tech region and Germany’s strongest commercial metropolitan area. Furthermore, Stuttgart is one of the greenest cities in Europe and is richly endowed with mineral spas and numerous springs. Early each year, the largest spring festival in Europe (essentially the Oktoberfest of Stuttgart) takes place at the Cannstatter Wasen, the traditional fairground in the oldest district of the city. When you journey to Stuttgart, you will discover lots more…!

EXCHANGE.NETWORK & OTHER ACTIVITIES
Our student-run initiative organizes various activities for our exchange students – not only during the orientation weeks, but also throughout the semester! Find out more about these activities here:

STUDENT EXCHANGE
How are books printed? What does „communication” mean? How are virtual worlds created? What happens behind the scenes in TV studios? What is important in the design of packaging and how does advertising actually work? Students at Stuttgart Media University are concerned with these and many other questions.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF MEDIA
With 16 Bachelor’s and 11 Master’s degree programs, Stuttgart Media University covers a broad spectrum of media expertise: from printed media to electronic media, from media theory and journalism to media production, from media design to making media available.

Stuttgart Media University has partnerships with around 100 universities worldwide, offers international degrees, and runs several ERASMUS+ strategic partnerships with universities from both inside and outside of the EU.

MOVING IMAGES
This Minor focuses on media production and moving images with an emphasis on production and practical approaches, as well as a basis in theory.

The Minor program consists of a graphic arts course, a basic seminar on film exercises, and a media production project, as well as language and cultural studies offered by the Language Centre.

This production course offers students an opportunity to develop and apply their knowledge and creative talent from first concepts all the way to a finished production. Thus it includes the packaging of a project and preparing fiction and/or non-fiction formats. As well as creating short screen productions, the Moving Images Minor involves looking at a wider range of formats such as audiovisual installations, cross-media and trans-media storytelling.

COURSES (Subject to change) ECTS
1. Academic Studies
   Graphic Arts 6
   Film Exercises 4
   Media Production 16
2. Language and Cultural Studies
   German Language Course 2
   Another language or cultural course as offered by the Language Centre min. 2

Within this Minor the students will:
› Learn about the conception and creative packaging of media projects
› Use a variety of methods and processes in different phases of media production

› Become familiar with project management and the development/organization of creative projects and learn to prepare, plan, execute, and control media projects
› Gain an understanding of calculation, financing, controlling and recoupment of media projects
› Evaluate and reflect on the methods needed for different media project formats
› Learn how to establish teamwork and to cooperate in an international student team

Besides the aspects of production, the Moving Images Minor also focuses on the challenges of storytelling and transcultural empathy in a dynamically changing media framework.
