

IVA Det
Informations-
videnskabelige
Akademi

The Royal School of Library and Information Science

Facts

Location:

- Copenhagen
- Aalborg (Northern part of Jutland)

Students

- → 1000 students

Employees in total: 95

- 6 professors (incl. rector)
- 39 associate professors
- 4 assistant professors
- 13 PhD scholars
- 40 administrative staff

RSLIS Copenhagen

iSchool

RSLIS is a member of the international iSchool network (www.iSchools.org) - an international alliance of universities working within the field of information science

Joint Study Profile – Berlin and Copenhagen

The Berlin School of Library and Information Science and the Royal School of Library and Information Science together offer a Joint Study Profile:

<http://iva.dk/english/education/joint-study-profile/>

Two consecutive semesters are at Master's level with the

- fall semester in Copenhagen
- spring semester in Berlin

International MA Programme

The Master of Library and Information Science is a 2-year full-time postgraduate programme. In 2012 approximately 20 students are enrolled in the International programme.

This programme focus on Information Science and provides insights into:

- information and knowledge production
- how to analyse and manage information resources of a business or organisation
- how to produce information policy and a strategy for putting it into practice
- project management and other forms of management
- how to plan, run and evaluate information systems in practice

Courses for exchange students

The international modules are offered to both bachelor and master degree students. The form and level of the examination will of course change and will correspond to the level of the student

▪ Courses in the fall semester 2012

Systems and User Evaluation
Information Ethics
Unlocking Cultural Heritage

▪ Courses in the spring semester 2013

Knowledge Management
Information use in context
Urban Culture - Place, Space and Relation

The Danish Academic Tradition

-
1. Teacher and student relationships
 2. Discussions and asking critical questions during classes
 3. Group work and project groups with fellow students
 4. Freedom versus responsibility

Housing in Copenhagen

- Finding accommodation in Copenhagen can be difficult. Prices are high and flats are few and far between.
- However, our housing coordinator does her best to help you find accommodation in Copenhagen, but there are no guarantees – and the responsibility is yours

Social Life at RSLIS

We have a mentor team consisting of RSLIS students making your arrival at RSLIS as easy as possible by participating in the introduction day and by arranging various social events for you and your fellow international students during the semester

The application procedure is easy!

The deadline for the Spring semester 2013 is December 1st

For your application you will need:

- The application form
- Your transcript of records
- An official nomination of you by your home institution
- Documentation of your academic English proficiencies; we highly recommend all applicants to attach documentation

The International Team

- looking forward to seeing you!

- Dean of Education
Jette Hyldegaard
- Registrar
Peter Havnø
- International Coordinator
Birger Larsen
- International Student Advisor
Ester Mark
- International Secretary
Hans Christian Nielsen

Time For Questions

-
- Ask your questions now!

or

- Send an e-mail to: studyabroad@iva.dk

You can also find the relevant information:

- at our website: <http://iva.dk/english/education/exchange-studies-at-rslis/>
- In our practical guides: <http://iva.dk/english/student-life/studying-and-living-in-denmark/practical-guides/>