Annual Award for the Best Libri Student Paper 2009

Since 1950, through 59 volumes, Libri: International Journal of Libraries and Information Services has been a leader among scholarly journals in the international library world. As part of its strategy to remain one of the premier library journals and to encourage new writers, Libri is issuing a call for “Best Student Paper of 2009.”

Students at all levels* are invited to submit single-authored articles with clarity and authority. There is no stated theme. Research papers should address one of the significant issues facing today’s librarians and information professionals. Case studies, best practices and pure research papers are all welcome.

- Length: approx. 5,000–7,000 words
  - Language: English
- Deadline: May 31, 2009

The best paper will be selected by an independent panel consisting of selected members of the Editorial Board, the Advisory Board and other international experts. Submissions will be judged on the basis of

- originality of thought and observation
- depth of research and scholarship
- topicality of problems addressed
- the international readership of the journal

The article will be published in the 2009:4 issue. The author of the winning article will be honoured with an award of five hundred EUR and with a complementary subscription to Libri for 2010. If the quality of competition warrants, some papers may be designated as honourable mention and the authors will receive complementary subscriptions to Libri for 2010. The normal provision to the author of 10 offprints and one complete issue applies to all winners.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Libri Editorial Office, K. G. Saur Verlag – an Imprint of Walter de Gruyter GmbH & Co. KG, Mies-van-der-Rohe-Str. 1, 80707, München, Germany. Electronic submissions are encouraged and may be submitted to libri@degruyter.com. Author instructions and further indications of the scope of papers suitable for publication in Libri are available at the LIBRI site at:

<http://www.librijournal.org/authorinst.html>.

All submissions should include a cover sheet confirming:

- the name of the institution where the student is or was enrolled
- the dates when the student is or was enrolled
- the date when the paper was written and the course for which it was prepared

* Exception: Senior information scholars returning to school for additional degrees outside the field of library and information science are not eligible for this award.
