

Teaching in English - Workshop

Date: Monday 15th - Tuesday 16th July 2019, approx. 10:00 -17:00

Teaching in English is a current topic in a global learning environment, where both teacher and learner are often non-native speakers of the language.

The program includes following subjects:

- functional language for the classroom
- discourse markers to structure
- signposts in informal and formal speech
- pronunciation practice guidelines
- analysis of factors that may influence your class, like different ages, ethnicities and language backgrounds
- debate on different learning strategies and approaches

You will receive also some principles of good practice, as well as design guidelines and tools you can use to promote engagement and deepen learning among students.
